

KIECKER
LAW OFFICE

Trust Law

One reason to allow your estate to pass through probate is that there is a high degree of safety, due to transparency and oversight.

However, probate is not for everyone. Probate entails costs and expenses. For example, the attorney's fees are often substantial because most steps in the process require attorney involvement. For a number of reasons, you might choose to place your assets into a trust.

I invite you to do what many satisfied clients have done. Put your faith in Kiecker Law Office.